

honey

- Tips:
- Always make sure student knows how to correctly form each letter before letting him do work independently.
  - Talk about the word the student is writing (i.e. What does it mean? What is it?)
  - Have student name the letters/vowels in each word.

Where does honey come from? What surah is named after the honey bee?
How many other sweet things can you name besides honey? Draw a picture of them.
