

I s l a m

Tips:

- Always make sure student knows how to correctly form each letter before letting him do work independently.
- Talk about the word the student is writing (i.e. What does it mean? What is it?)
- Have student name the letters/vowels in each word.

Handwriting practice area consisting of seven columns of ruled lines. Each column contains a set of three horizontal lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first column is pre-filled with the letters 'I', 's', 'l', 'a', and 'm' on the top, middle, middle, bottom, and bottom lines respectively. The remaining six columns are blank for student practice.
